

4th FEBRUARY 2020 meeting of Feltham History Group

The Chairman opened proceedings with new year's welcome and continued with detail of the group's programme for the coming year stating that full detail will be available at the next meeting

Under items of interest

Tony Fredjohn provided an update of Feltham Magistrates Court and the ongoing Tesco's land problem in the High Street

1932

The Secretary spoke on matters of railway lines , i.e. the line that used to run across the High St into Feltham Depot “during works in High St a rail was exposed, members may remember that a line was put into the depot to properly service the facility, additionally following removal of a row Leylandii near Elmwood Rd entrance to the depot part of the railway line was exposed – coincidentally the Secretary was sent a box of items on local history by a son of a onetime member of H&DHS which contained an image of the line in the depot ‘below Depot line images shows same position but 37 years apart’

Under forthcoming events the Chairman gave dates for the Spring Talks (Feltham Library) they being April 25th 'Fight for the Bridle Path/Battle of Lovers Lane' James Marshall and May 30th 'a talk on Feltham Cemetery' by Alan Rice there was discussion on a Mayoral visit (TF) and following discussion the Secretary was requested to write to the Mayor offering a date for attendance.

Under AOB

The Secretary advised members of the input from the group re the 'History Hoardings, i.e. FHG have submitted a list of images for consideration!

There was discussion on the group's Website with the secretary charged with engaging with the Webmaster.

The 'short talk' for the evening was given by the Secretary entitled 'Transport of old' 'Carriages, carts and Horses' (Bill Mitchell (dcd))

The meeting concluded at 9-10pm